

Draft LondonFest Program

Monday February 8

Heure/Time	Présentations
14H30	Welcome to Paris
14H45	Patrick Cavanagh: Position and attention
15H00	Alan Johnston: Time on my hands
15H15	Tomas Knapen: Spatiotopy during smooth pursuit
15H30	Inci Ayhan: Time and order
15H45	Arielle Veenemans: Lurking time
16H00	Martin Rolfs: Saccades to positions briefly seen
16H15	Dominique Lamy: Priming of popout
16H30	Coffee Break
16H45
17H00	Martin Szinte: Continuous motion seen during a saccade
17H15	Pascal Mamassian: Surprise talk
17H30	Jean Lorenceau: Surprising talk
17H45	Mark Wexler: Galvanometers in the modern lab
18H00	Tom Otto: Feature inheritance
18H15	Extra time because people tend to go over their 15 minutes
19H30	Dinner in fabulous nearby restaurant

Tuesday February 9

Heure/Time	Présentations
9H30	Steve Dakin: Perceived position and crowding
9H45	Remy Allard: External noise affects crowding in detection
10H00	John Greenwood: Crowding and appearance
10H15	Bilge Sayim: Context and crowding
10H30	David Souto: Attention and apparent motion
10H45	Patrick Cavanagh: Nonretinotopic Crowding
11H00	Coffee Break
11H15
11H30	Aurelio Bruno: Contrast and time
11H45	Martin Rolfs: Attentional benefits of remapping
12H00	Tomas Knapen: Feature specificity of saccadic remapping
12H15	Josh Solomon: One dimensional visual judgments
12H30	Michael Morgan: Surprise summing up if even a minute left
13H00	Lunch in a cozy nearby restaurant